

REFLECTIONS 1968

ALMA MATER

Let our hearts be filled with knowledge,
Purge our souls with fame,
Tell the world we truly love you,
And revere your name.
Throw the gate of wisdom open,
Spread your learning far,
Let your torch so brightly burning
Be our guiding star.

CHORUS: Let us follow, ever faithful,
Paths both right and true.
All our fame we proudly offer,
Dear John Hay to you.

Although the past can never be relived, there is no better way to remember the days spent at John Hay than through the pages of an annual that portrays the realistic school life of its students.

This is the purpose toward which the staff has guided its work in preparing our yearbook. Looking at the pages after completing "Reflections 68," we quickly realize that the time and effort devoted to its completion was rewarding.

The work was no simple task; the achieved results were gratifying. It is with pleasure that we present this yearbook as a lasting memory of the golden moments of our high school years.

Diane A. Green
Editor

Because our advisor is considered a model teacher, a reliable friend . . .

One whose loving kindness and strong will has enlightened the way of many a troubled youth . . .

He has aroused in his students a new faith in their ability, who instills a love of truth and honor and who by the sincere dedication of his abilities has inspired those about him . . .

We are exceedingly proud to dedicate

to

Mr. Wiley Smith III

SOCIAL LIFE

SENIOR ADVISOR BOARD

SITTING: Miss Sheutzow, Miss Humphrey. STANDING: Mr. Wheland, Mr. Spronz, Mr. Bertie, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Smith.

The Advisory Board consists of faculty members, who help out in every phase that concerns our final days of school. Such things as financial matters, prom activities, yearbook, announcements, and setting the stage for Senior Day and Commencement, are a big part of the Advisory Boards' duties.

It's not easy to thank these teachers in person, but here in "Reflections 68" we would like to express our sincere gratitude for what they have done to make us happy as we leave the Sacred Halls of John Hay.

Graduating from Glenville in 1958, he attended Findley College where he played basketball.

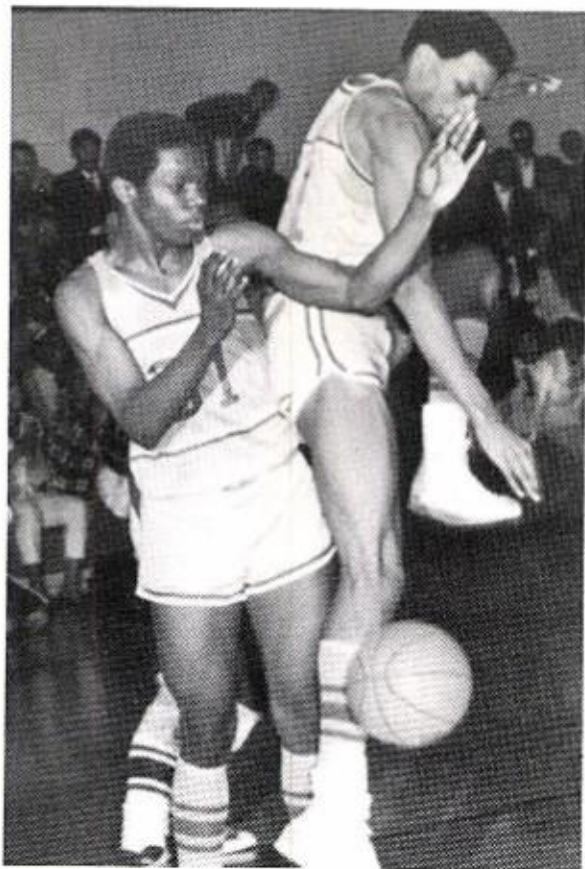

Devoted to basketball, he takes time out to fishing in our mighty streams. He is married and is the proud father of 1 son.

1967-68 BASKETBALL TEAM

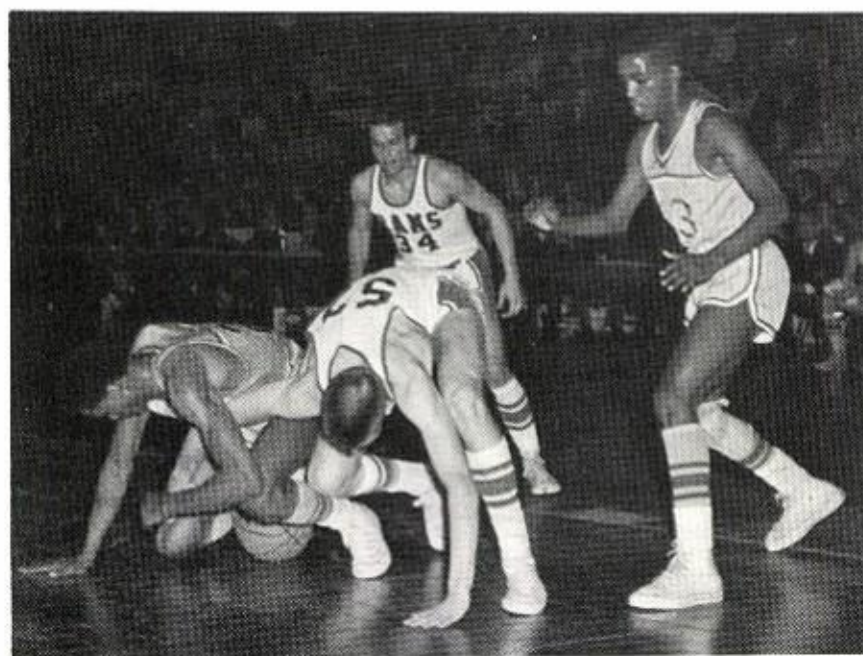

With outstanding ability on the part of the boys, they attained a proud 11 wins and 3 losses, for the senate record.

To show our appreciation and gratification, we the staff of REFLECTIONS "68", dedicate the following pages of the sports sections to Mr. Jerry Mitchell and the Basketball Team.

SENIORS PRECIOUS MEMORIES

The boosters, Drama, Math Club, Newspaper Staff, Gym leaders, Student Council, F.T.A., Choir and Highsteppers are just some of the many organizations that involves the student body at John Hay.

Ruby Sanders an active Gym leader and Student Council member, feels that her biggest reward has been the Student Council. She remarks that the people were friendly, and says that she will long remember the laughs and sorrows while in the Student Council room.

Calin Hudson's biggest reward at Hay was serving as Student Council President. His biggest laugh was the Student Council picnic watching Robert Acree run into a tree, while playing football.

Verene Davis, also an active Gym leader comments on all the memories she will treasure in the team room, and the good times she experienced while in the Gym. Also she will treasure the 1967-68 Basketball season for she feels a certain something for each and every team member!!!!!!

Stephen Adams, a very active and talkative young man, says he loves to watch the girls in minis and bobby socks, as well as our faithful security guards trying to catch people.

Loretha White enjoyed the fun she obtained while marching in the muddy fields during football season. She will never forget the fun and "excitement" at the parties after the basketball games! Her and Diane Green will always remember the constant conflict and bickering during the semester on the Yearbook staff.

Brenda Walker, is an all-around girl. She has taken shorthand, auto mechanics, and is the President of Future Teachers of America. She knows judo, so watch out young men of Hay, Brenda doesn't play.

GRADUATING STAFF MEMBERS

Workmanship, devotion, determination, are ingredients used in the publishing of Reflection "68".

The yearbook committee worked diligently, giving up studyhalls, putting in extra time after school. We found later the time and effort were very rewarding.

THE STAFF OF REFLECTIONS "68"

Diane Green, Editor, Mr. Smith, Advisor, going over previous books to sort out good and bad points. Their aim is to present a wholesome, worthwhile, annual, one that would bring back sweet precious memories.

The staff workers, taking time out to pose!

THE STAFF!!!

STAGE CRAFTERS

Stagecrafters responsible for setting the stage, for any programs, and also building flats for drama productions. Their advisor to the crafters is Mr. Hickson.

Lovejoys, responsible for selling tickets, showing noon-movies.

LOVE JOYS

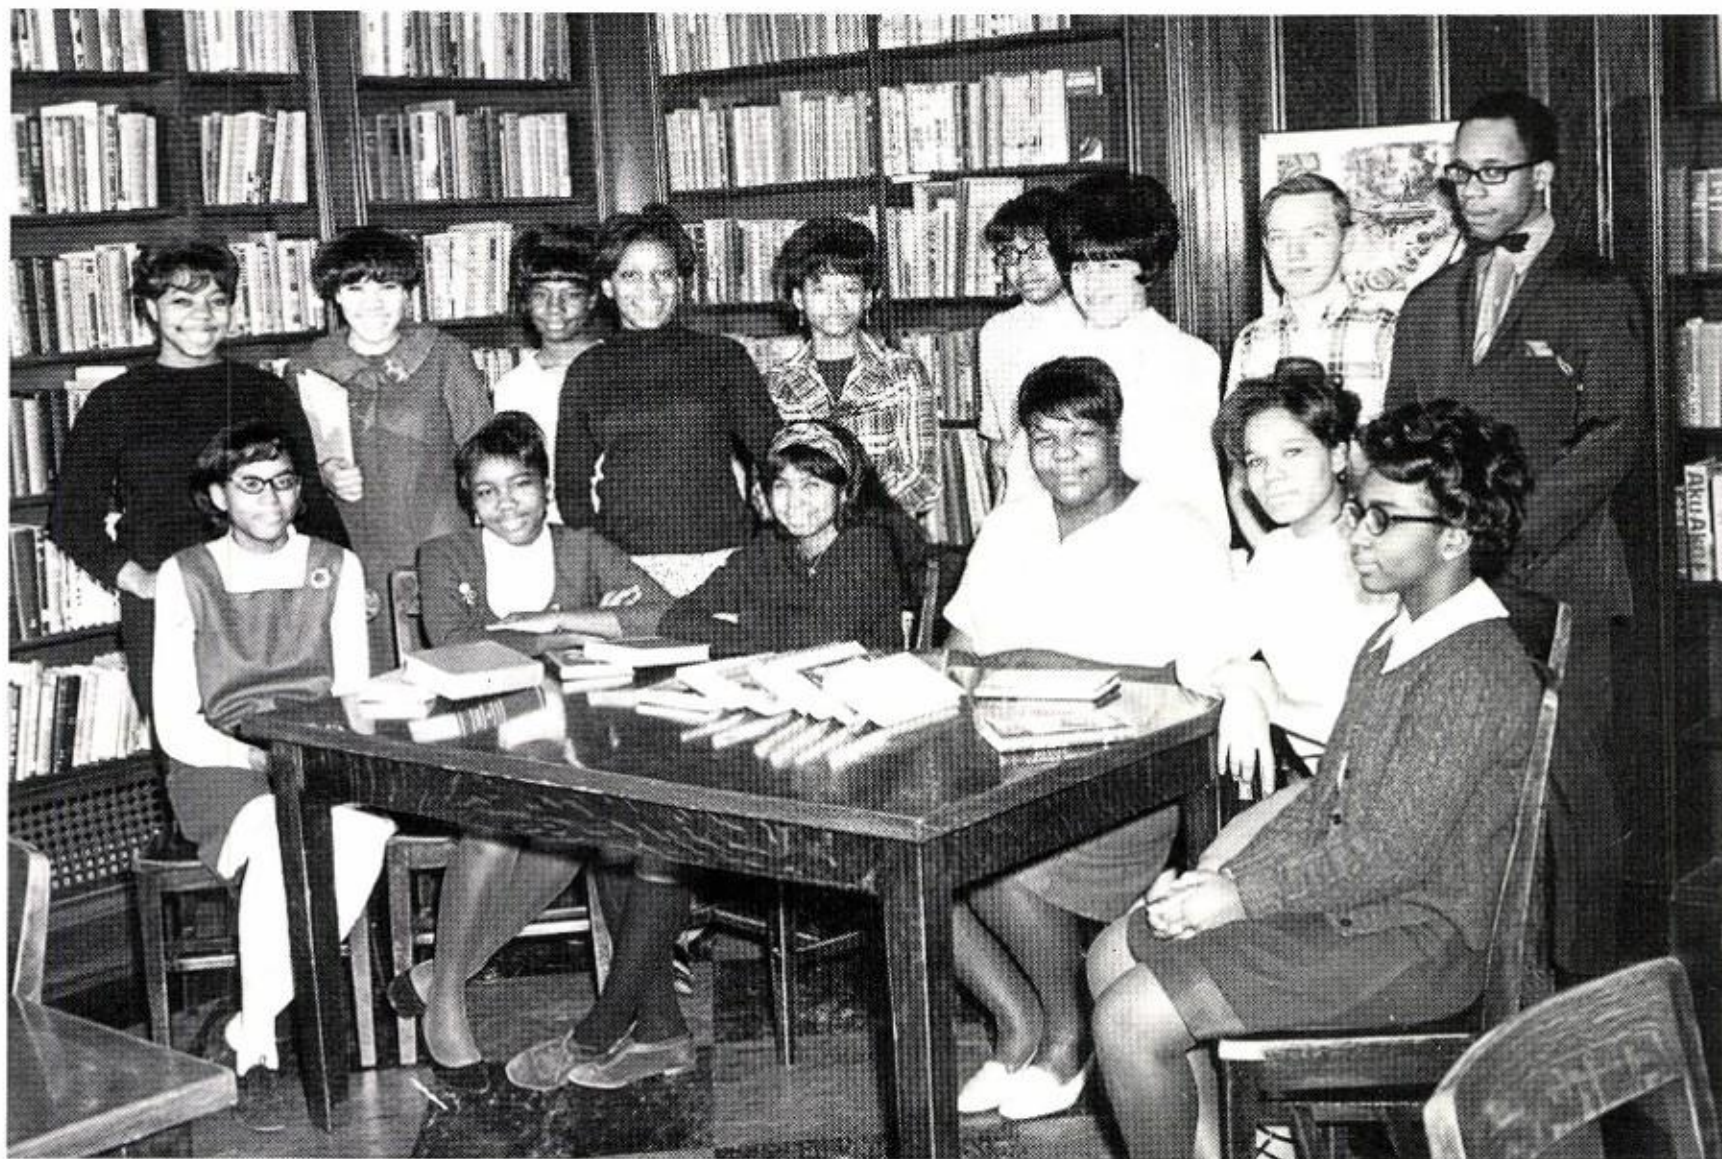

LEDGAR SECRETARIES

Ledgar secretaries responsible for the distribution of newspapers, and collecting activities tickets. Their advisor is Mr. Bertie.

LIBRARY SERVICES

Library helpers, a very unique organization, keep our library shelves clean and well stacked. Their advisor is Mrs. Tucker.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Those students who plan to work with children, should be members of the Future Teachers of America. They instill a better understanding of the problems that surround teaching.

CORRIDOR GUARDS

Walking the halls of Ivy, checking to make sure halls are neat, are the corridor guards. Working on a free period, they check to make sure there is order in the halls.

STUDENT COUNCIL CABINET

THE BOY'S AND GIRL'S GLEE CLUB

Their fine instructor is Mr. Bennett

ADVANCED MIXED CHOIR

Their director, Mr. Bennett who strives for excellency in his students. They practice hard and the result is very rewarding. Mr. Bennett has been at John Hay for years. His choirs have brought many outstanding awards and recognition to Hay.

Below: The seniors who graduated in January, going through a drill session.

HIGHLIGHTS OF

Senior Day for mid-term graduates was a tearful and joyful one. Singing The Halls of Ivy, these seniors faces reflect how they really miss the pleasant days that they spent here.

Calvin Hudson, Renee Street, Glorio Holmes, Cora Collins, listen to the Guest Speaker for Senior Day. This is the day that students anticipate, the day when memories come into everyone's mind, about the first time entering John Hay, the fights and struggles we had with our minds, to stay and endure the hardships that come.

NICKNAMES

Everyone has a nickname, whether he obtained it from a child, or a newly acquired nickname through some of his friends. The ways in which we acquire our nicknames, sometimes can prove to be quite amusing.

One look at Shari Robinson and everyone knows why they call her "Dimples", Carolyn Thronton, "Smily", or Hannah Coffey "Bean".
 It is not hard to figure out why people call Carl Jackson "Jack", or Charmian Warren "Charm", Belinda Crockett "B.C.", or Paulette Swoope, "Swoope", "J. B." is coupled for two people, Joyce Bennet and James Brown.
 The real fun is trying to figure out unusual nicknames and where they are derived from.
 Loretha White--says "I really can't say how I got this name "Refa", but so many persons mispronounce my name that I got stuck with the name of "Refa".
 Verene Davis "GingerSnap" says that Ginger has been her nickname for a long time, but it wasn't until she came to Hay that someone added the Snap.
 Ruby Sanders "Tism"--Her nickname dates back to her Junior High School days. People related Ruby to Rheumatism and it seems that the "Tism" stuck with her.

Let's take a look at some more nicknames for the Seniors at John Hay.

Gregory Davis	Romeo	Scheryl Spencer	Buttercup
Cheryl Hoover	Mopsey	Charmian Warren	Charm
Gloria Holmes	Cha Cook	Jennifer Chandler	Blue
Calvin Hudson	Hut	Marion Lee	Bug
Jerry Hardaway	Hard	Asberry Holt	Oats

Carolyn McElrath	Booney	Edgar Tufts	Pee Wee

I HEARD IT THROUGH THE GRAPEVINE...

"GRAPEVINE 68" was originated to bring JOHN HAY's public gossip, for which the HORNET NEST is noted for, to light. THIS PAGE, is guaranteed to bring to you, the "juicy gossip" of Peyton Place # 2.

First, let's donate a heart to the lovers of 1967-68, as of September. Ellis G. & Shirley B.; Shari & Billy Baskerville; Ronaldo & Druella; Edgar & Renee; Verene & Carl J.; Martha & Ricky; Ruby & Alvin; Charlotte & Bubble; Cora & Otis; Cheryl H. & Croom; Robert A. & Renee W.; Scheryl & Gregory D.; Shirley W. & Clarence; Thelma M. & Carl H.; Darlene & Mack; and of course Charm & Ernest, Larry & Jean.

With the KICKOFF of football season, Crystal James tackled Marion Lee for a touchdown . . . Dudley employed his running ability as he ran up on a little treat . . . R. Walker was resting on the lap of Mr. Pretty Legs . . . as McMichael was vacationing in a "Hut" with the President . . . Going on, A.C.T.ress Sanders was making her come back, and it seemed that Robin-Bird had an itch for a piece of "Ivy" . . . It seemed that fast twirling majorette did a figure "8" for Willis . . . Mary Sims & Pat T. both became musically inclined for a Drummer-Trumpet player . . .

Speeding up the pace a little let's shoot a jumper into basketball season. This was a season to surpass all seasons and a time when HAY became "Sadie Hawkins Ville" . . . Ellis (Booze) seemed to give up his zone defense, as J. M. decided to graduate from pop to liquor . . . Miss Mopsey had her a star at East as well as Hay in the game of E. T. vs T. J., Baby Brooks seemed to grow up as Cortland took away her BOTTLE to replace it with a pacifier . . . Jack who had been shooting his jumper to GingerSnap got steps called as he tip-toed elsewhere . . . Glo seemed to find her own little devil as Imp fired his pitchfork . . . Say guess who had L. P. on their lockers, would you believe R. D. and G. E. . . . Rita D. did a backward flip for none other than Mr. All-Star himself . . . and Goofy wasn't so goofy, for he had one on each arm and one tagging behind as he rode away on his little white pig (oink, oink) . . . G. P. found his basketball practice outside the Hornet's nest . . . and Cool handed West laid-up "2" for Miss Wilburn . . . Hot Shot Smith shot those foul shots for the McMichael kid but later decided to miss . . . it seems that Robin lost his chili bean as it found its powder in Knuck-L-Head who later traveled Dianecourt . . . Deacon employed strategy as he netted back Miss Covington . . . Someone other than Otis was doing Russian leaps for Bonnie, and Mr. Jive was called for goal tending when his goal was a certain Itty Bitty cheerleader . . . and of course, Charm and Ernest proved to be the dynamic duo of the century . . . We all remember those victory parties. The first was given by Mopsey Hoover, Refa, and V. D. at the White House . . . Mr. Popular (melvin erwin) was surprised by a party at the Livingston pad . . . and everybody rocked with BIG C. J. as he grew another year older . . . The Candidates ended the season as they swang at the Colosseum after the championship game.

Fouling out of basketball season let's take a bird's eye view of the last semester at the Nest. Miss Mines suffered a cave-in as Dynamite Parker let out a blast . . . Gregory D. has been traveling on E. 109th Street, but it seems that his old home is still giving him some comfort . . . Has Streety been sharing her "corn" with someone else lately, or does "butter" just add the needed flavor . . . Miss C. Walker went bird hunting and brought back a "Turkey" and with the sound of the "Bell" the "Saint" went marching in.

Here's some more juice-()(&)

Mr. Jive is at it again as he "polks" in and out . . . Ginger has been eating her Cheeri-OATS as they try to add a little spice in her life . . . The "Marshall" has posted a reward for the capture of a runaway "Hut" . . . and Ronald Wilson seems to be spreading his goodness aboard . . . Miss Wendy announces her engagement to Joe Wilson and Rhoda Smith plans to wed James Skanes . . . P.S. Hard wasn't so hard-up as he found pleasure in sharing his glory with Mr. G. Paul . . . Gone are these days, but NEVER forgotten. Guess who's taking who, and will be seen with who at the Prom??? Charm & Ernest; Martha & Lamarr St. John; Shari & Baskerville; Cheryl and Tony Howell; Say who is taking Tazie to the Prom? Cornelius McElrath. Melvin Hodges & Minnie Tripp; Belinda Crockett & Ernest Turner; Janice Marizette & Ernest; and Ricardo & Nellie . . . Carol Seay & Willie Cobb . . . DO YOU REMEMBER . . . the time Calvin got money instead of applause . . . Oh Well, this grape has no more juice, so just cling to the VINE.

Senior Hornets' Last Will and Testament

Though we are leaving, we hope these things will live and continue on

Gregory Davis--Leaves to his brother Gary all his success with the female Hornets.

Renee Walker--leaves to Cheryl Acree her A's in French.
Melvin Hodges--leaves his aggressiveness to debonaire Lamar Clark.
Diane Green--leaves her headaches to the next editor, in hopes that she'll do a better job, and her acting ability to Clara Warren.
Melvin Erwin--bequeaths to Gerry himself to pull him out next Jan. if he doesn't make it this June or Aug.
Delores Shomo--bequeaths all her common sense to Jean McMichael.
Sandra Hearn--hereby bequeaths all her grades and attendance to her brother.
Sheila Eady--wills her senior cap and A's in Mac. Cal. to Jackie Cunningham.
Cissie Miller--wills her cap and ability to get along to Marian Ried.

JUNE 1968

A date that was once in the far future, has now become the present, and as we stand on the threshold of adulthood, our minds wander back to our freshmen days--the days when everything seemed to encompass us, and we beheld those days with anxiety and hope.

But as we advanced and we became a part of John Hay, we were proud to be known as one of the Hornets.

Now we become a part of the past. We look back and wonder how we got over. It's with hope in our hearts and a strong belief in ourselves that we face the society outside. Having acquired skill and training with which we will advance, we know that we are a winner.

To the teachers and administration we say with sincere gratitude in our hearts, Thanks for all that you have done to make our pathway brighter, and to each other we say,

CONGRATULATIONS AND FAREWELL.

Thanks for your help yearbook staff, without your ability and time this work could not have been completed.
